with Pastor Tara Beth Leach - The Church on Mission Is Generous Beyond Measure

Wired For Mission

The missional identity of the people of God has been a common thread and theme through the rolling narrative of the Bible. The early church did not exist simply for itself, but for the world. It was a living example and a living testimony of the work God had done in King Jesus; it was a messianic and Spirit-empowered community who lived into the Jesus mission to the ends of the earth.

You are called and empowered to participate in God’s mission in this world. God redeems you from slavery, brokenness, and idolatry, and then empowers you to live in this freedom visibly before the nations and before the world.

This mission before you is boundless. Mission is who the Church is. It’s who the Church has always been. You are wired for this.

“The Church” by Elevation Worship

We are the church the world is waiting for We’ve got a love the world is desperate for
We will lead and take to your streets

Now’s the time for us to rise
And carry hope and let love shine
And show this world that mercy is alive

We’re not afraid. we will abandon all
To hear your name on lips across the world
We will run in the wake of your love

Now’s the time for us to rise
And carry hope and let love shine
And show this world that mercy is alive

Fill our hearts with your compassion
Let our love be active here

Sermon Text

Acts 4:32-37

All the believers were one in heart and mind. No one claimed that any of their possessions was their own, but they shared everything they had. With great power the apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And God’s grace was so powerfully at work in them all that there were no needy persons among them. For from time to time those who owned land or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales and put it at the apostles’ feet, and it was distributed to anyone who had need.

Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus, whom the apostles called Barnabas (which means “son of encouragement”), sold a field he owned and brought the money and put it at the apostles’ feet.
