Sermon Text

2 Samuel 7:8-17

“Now then, tell my servant David, ‘This is what the LORD Almighty says: I took you from the pasture, from tending the flock, and appointed you ruler over my people Israel. I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name great, like the names of the greatest men on earth. And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed. Wicked people will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders over my people Israel. I will also give you rest from all your enemies.

“The LORD declares to you that the LORD himself will establish a house for you: When your days are over and you rest with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, your own flesh and blood, and I will establish his kingdom. He is the one who will build a house for my Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. I will be his father, and he will be my son. When he does wrong, I will punish him with a rod wielded by men, with floggings inflicted by human hands. But my love will never be taken away from him, as I took it away from Saul, whom I removed from before you. Your house and your kingdom will endure forever before me; your throne will be established forever.”

Nathan reported to David all the words of this entire revelation.

COMMUNITY PRAYER AT MOTT AUDITORIUM

In light of recent shootings in Pasadena, area churches are once again convening to pray for God to intervene in our city and country. This Sunday evening, January 22, from 6:00-8:00 pm, you are invited to meet at historic Mott Auditorium on the former campus of Pasadena Nazarene College for this concert of prayer. For decades, Mott Auditorium (1603 East Howard Street, Pasadena, 91104) was the sight for LA District Camp meetings, District Assembly, and other functions for the church and college. Here's your opportunity to join with other brothers and sisters in Christ from across the city. Plan to be a part of this significant event.
