SUMMER
BIBLE STUDY

Tuesdays, July 11 - July 25
9:30 - 11:30 am • Gilmore Hall • Free

with Dr. Brad Strawn—The Slavery of Death

Sermon Text:

Romans 6:1-14; 23
 So what are we going to say? Should we continue sinning so grace will multiply? Absolutely not! All of us died to sin. How can we still live in it? Or don't you know that all who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore, we were buried together with him through baptism into his death, so that just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too can walk in newness of life. If we were united together in a death like his, we will also be united together in a resurrection like his. This is what we know: the person that we used to be was crucified with him in order to get rid of the corpse that had been controlled by sin. That way we wouldn't be slaves to sin anymore, because a person who has died has been freed from sin's power. But if we died with Christ, we have faith that we will also live with him. We know that Christ has been raised from the dead and he will never die again. Death no longer has power over him. He died to sin once and for all with his death, but he lives for God with his life. In the same way, you also should consider yourselves dead to sin but alive for God in Christ Jesus.

So then, don't let sin rule your body, so that you do what it wants. Don't offer parts of your body to sin, to be used as weapons to do wrong. Instead, present yourselves to God as people who have been brought back to life from the dead, and offer all the parts of your body to God to be used as weapons to do right. Sin will have no power over you, because you aren't under Law but under grace.

The wages that sin pays are death, but God's gift is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

LIVING THE MISSION ... RIGHT WHERE YOU ARE
 This summer, join your PazNaz family on Wednesday nights at 6:30 pm in Gilmore Hall as they explore the power of story and seek ways to live missionally in the local and global neighborhood. Each Wednesday night, PazNaz's Jerry Romasco will lead you through a vulnerable exploration of the power of story, both "my story" and "others' stories." This class time will strengthen your ability to develop meaningful relationships with those who are different from you, as you intentionally live missionally. The structure of the class will be: three weeks exploring My Story; one week unpacking No Secrets, an anonymous space for people to share and develop empathy as a skill and posture towards others; and three weeks exploring Others' Stories. Children's programming is available for birth-fifth grade.

THE BAND SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS
 The Band Sunday School class, taught by Brad Strawn, is engaging in a summer series on the Christian concept of reconciliation based on the book, "Roadmap to Reconciliation: Moving Communities Into Unity, Wholeness and Justice" by Rev. Dr. Brenda Salter McNeil. This series is designed to spark PazNaz's Kingdom imagination and help the church think about next steps in the journey of Living the Mission. Class time will be a combination of lecture and table discussion. All ages are invited. The Band meets Sunday mornings at 9:30 am in Gilmore Hall, South. For more information, contact Brad Strawn at bradstrawn@fuller.edu.
