with Dr. Brad Strawn—A Radiant Body

Sermon Text:

1 Corinthians 12:12-27, 31 CEB

Christ is just like the human body—a body is a unit and has many parts; and all the parts of the body are one body, even though there are many. We were all baptized by one Spirit into one body, whether Jew or Greek, or slave or free, and we all were given one Spirit to drink. Certainly the body isn't one part but many. If the foot says, "I'm not part of the body because I'm not a hand," does that mean it's not part of the body? If the ear says, "I'm not part of the body because I'm not an eye," does that mean it's not part of the body? If the whole body were an eye, what would happen to the hearing? And if the whole body were an ear, what would happen to the sense of smell? But as it is, God has placed each one of the parts in the body just like he wanted. If all were one and the same body part, what would happen to the body? But as it is, there are many parts but one body. So the eye can't say to the hand, "I don't need you," or in turn, the hand can't say to the eye, "I don't need you." Instead, the parts of the body that people think are the weakest are the most necessary. The parts of the body that we think are less honorable are the ones we honor the most. The private parts of our body that aren't presentable are the ones that are given the most dignity. The parts of our body that are presentable don't need this. But God has put the body together, giving greater honor to the part with less honor so that there won't be division in the body and so the parts might have mutual concern for each other. If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part gets the glory, all the parts celebrate with it. You are the body of Christ and parts of each other.

Use your ambition to try to get the greater gifts. And I'm going to show you an even better way.

ABOUT THE SERMON SERIES & ARTWORK
 God is a radiant God, and we are invited as God's people to reflect God's radiant light. In John's Gospel, Jesus not only declares that he is the Light of the World, but he also calls his people light in his Sermon on the Mount. Throughout this series, we hope to paint the vision of the radiant community that Jesus says we can be, and call the people of God to reflect God's good and radiant image.
