Today's Sermon: Joy in the Revelatory Body

with Dr. Brad Strawn

Sermon Text:

1 Corinthians 6:12-20 CEB

I have the freedom to do anything, but not everything is helpful. I have the freedom to do anything, but I won't be controlled by anything. Food is for the stomach and the stomach is for food, and yet God will do away with both. The body isn't for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body. God has raised the Lord and will raise us through his power. Don't you know that your bodies are parts of Christ? So then, should I take parts of Christ and make them a part of someone who is sleeping around? No way! Don't you know that anyone who is joined to someone who is sleeping around is one body with that person? The scripture says, The two will become one flesh. The one who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with him. Avoid sexual immorality! Every sin that a person can do is committed outside the body, except those who engage in sexual immorality commit sin against their own bodies. Or don't you know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you? Don't you know that you have the Holy Spirit from God, and you don't belong to yourselves? You have been bought and paid for, so honor God with your body.

ABOUT THE SERMON SERIES

As a radiant people we embrace the messiness of life, knowing that the presence of the Living God is often found in surprising places. God dwells with us as we are, cultivating humble joy alongside the complexities of our sacred ordinary lives. This humble joy, to a radiant people, is electrifying; it buzzes like a neon sign of possibility in God's weary world.
